

This document is to help with locating information on your personal MyGov account concerning your super account. Details you can locate include:

- Fund details will let you know where your current active super is from the end of the previous Financial Year at 30 June,
- Information about your contributions received in the current and for the past Financial Years,
- Concessional Contributions (before tax),
- Non-Concessional Contributions (after tax)
- Carry forward concessional contributions that include the amount you can contribute to catch up from previous years start from the 2019 Financial Year,
- Transfer balance which is related to the pension phase and holding the maximum of $1.7M in this account,
- Employer contributions which should show the most recent contributions received

This is important information that can help you identify multiple accounts, contributions and what further contributions you can add to your personal account.
